2- No one is _____. (v. 4)

3- God is _____. (v. 4)

4- Through _____, we have unity with the One who is _____. (v. 4)

5- God's Word is _____. (v. 5-6)

This book is not about _____ I _____, but _____ I _____ to listen to.

Gaining Wisdom for Abundant Living
Week Two (How to Gain Wisdom)

Read Proverbs 30:1-6 each day along with those scriptures listed below.

Monday – Proverbs 30:1-6

Reflection: Remember these verses are about gaining wisdom for abundant living. What makes you weary in pursuing God's wisdom? Do you have the same kind of response as Agur?

Tuesday – Psalm 139 (especially vs. 5-6)

Reflection: What response do you have to these verses about God's comprehensive knowledge and presence?

Wednesday – Ephesians 1:3-10

Reflection: As Christians, we know the One who has "gone up to heaven and come down", ascended to heaven, and sits at God's right hand (Jesus). Praise God for what he has done for us through Jesus (focus on vs. 9).

Thursday – John 1:12-13; Romans 8:14-17;
Galatians 3:26; 1 John 3:1

Reflection: Do you consider yourself a child of God? In light of what we are currently learning in Proverbs as well as your best biblical knowledge, how would you describe a child of God?

Friday – Psalm 18:30-36

Reflection: Does this description of God's way and word bring comfort or worry (or some other emotion)? Why?

Saturday – Revelation 22:18-21

Reflection: Why do we have such a strong warning against adding or taking away from God's words?

Sunday – Rest in God's Presence at Home and Folkston UMC

Memory Verse: "I am weary God, but I can prevail" (Proverbs 30:1 NIV).
